

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Butte, Mont.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ralston and Clarence Trowbridge drowned when their autos skidded and pinned them in water.

Lafayette, Ind.—Paul Barger, 19-year old freshman at Purdue University, freed on charge of murdering his father. The elder Barger was killed by Paul in defense of his mother.

New York.—Gale Borden, condensed milk king, sued for divorce by his wife, who lives in California. Borden will leave in a few days for Europe.

London.—Report that liner Imperator was ashore on Isle of Wight untrue.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Former U. S. Senator Frank Miscock dead.

Redding, Cal.—Forest rangers on slopes of Mt. Lassen have stopped tourists going above timber line. New eruptions feared.

Cedar Point, O.—Harry Atwood's hydroaeroplane attached for $20 charge by boatman who towed flying boat ashore when it was disabled.

Mount Pleasant, Ia.—Fire which wiped out business block did $140,000 damage.

Rome.—Desperate fighting still on at Durrizzo, with Prince William's defeat inevitable unless allies come to his aid.

Munich, Bavaria.—Queen of Bavaria seriously injured during celebration at Passau when skyrocket struck her on head.

Lincoln, Neb.—Damage by rust to Nebraska wheat crop slight.

Toledo, O.—Administration forces of Woodmen claim caucus gives them control of convention.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Auto containing three Cornell students struck farmer's wagon, probably fatally injuring Willis Tracy, 68, and Arthur Curtis, 35.

Racine, Wis.—Chief of police placed ban on premature celebrations of July 4.

Little Falls, N. Y.—Jennie Oberlie, 12, run down and killed by auto. W. L. Reid, Schenectady, owner, and Patrick Cohan, chauffeur, held. Were returning from Cornell commencement.

St. Paul.—Gov. A. O. Eberhart defeated for Republican nomination for governor by W. E. Lee of Long Prairie.

Washington.—Members of federal reserve board will have to serve without pay until they levy assessments upon member banks.

London.—Militant chained herself to statue of Duke of Wellington in front of royal exchange and cried to passers-by to interfere in behalf of women in prison. Unchained. Arrested.

New York.—Miss Hadeline Edison, daughter Thos. A. Edison, inventor, married to John E. O'Connor.

Champaign, Ill.—Merchant policeman took pot shot at tires on auto of Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to U. S., because his lights were out.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Clyde Hollenbeck, 30, shot and killed on street by Dr. D. S. Craddock. Jealousy.

Pittsburgh.—800 coal miners of G. R. Crowe Coal Co. struck. Insisted engineer to be kept at mine temporarily down.

Monroe, Mich.—Lester Boice, member of St. Johns College baseball team, Toledo, instantly killed. Struck over heart by pitched ball.

Washington.—Rep. White, Ohio, underwent minor operation. Recovering.

London.—War between Greece and Turkey to be prevented by agreement between Germany and France, advices from Berlin.

Washington.—West Virginia strike mediators sent informal proposal to miners and operators providing for arbitration. Refused by miners.

Denver.—Thos. W. Patterson, former U. S. senator, announced can-